School Uniform

I am aware that some of you received an email last week informing you that Tesco will no longer be providing our school uniform. We have been in contact with myclothing who are the new provider and a copy of their poster is included in this newsletter.

Mother's Day Lunch

On Wednesday 27th March children and Mum's are invited to share a Mother's Day Lunch in school. Mrs Cook will be preparing a special roast dinner. If you would like to attend please book your space using ParentPay. We need to have numbers by Friday 15th March so we can order enough food. Nursery children are invited to stay for this and can be booked on ParentPay too.

Polite Notice

Please note that the entrance hall is often a space where people need to have confidential and sometimes difficult conversations with members of staff. This is often difficult when there are a lot of people sat in there at the beginning and end of the day. Please try to use the space only when you need to in order to allow people to speak to staff in confidence.

Communication with the office

It can often be hard to get hold of Mrs Hendriksen or your child's teacher at busy times of day. Please remember that email is a great way to send messages so that you don't have to wait around or phone up. Please email: admin2064@welearn365.com

Y123 trip to Tobago!

On the aeroplane

This week children in Y123 took a trip to Tobago! They flew by aeroplane and had a great time experiencing some of the foods, activities and sights there. This was to prepare them for their new topic using the book 'Gregory Cool'.

Playing in the sand

Trying different fruits

The children then wrote letters home to tell their families about their trip. Here are some examples:

Dear family,

I am writing to you to tell you about our trip to Tobago. It took us 9 hours and 10 minutes. The sea was swishing and it was calm.

When I arrived in Tobago I was shocked to see lots of fruit so it is so. There was did see a lot of mangoes. I tried this and coconuts. I didn't like it. I played in the soft golden sand. I lay in the hammock.

In the distance, I could see the houses and the golden sand. I took water to swim with the fish. I took a lot of water. I took a lot of water. I took a lot of water.

I felt really relaxed. It was the best. We had to go home. We had to go home. We had to go home.

I wish you could come too.

Love from,
Lucia

Dear Mum,

I am writing to you to say that we went to Tobago. When I arrived I saw lots of fruit on the table. There were mangoes and pineapples and bananas. When I arrived in Tobago I was shocked to see all off the sea. It was amazing.

I tried mango, coconuts, pineapple, banana. What is this? and what banana? I looked around and saw parrots with coconuts on.

In the distance, I could see a parrot on the dirt. I saw a parrot in the distance and a parrot. I saw sand in the distance and saw the trees.

I felt happy, excited and surprised. When I walked in I felt safe and happy. I would like to go back to Tobago again.

Love from,
Eva
